REVERLY HILLS -- Well all I know is just what I read in the press. Course those five hundred that come in out in Arkansaw and demanded food for their famalies, that tion. It caused more than any one peared in a long time. Now those tolks down there sho was hungry or hey wouldent have come in and asked was proud people its them. They dont believe in accepting Charity.

Well the Government woke up and roted $15,000.000 for food right away. At first the Government said they would try and provide money to get the Farmers some seed for their next crops, but that they wouldent give them money for food as that would be too much like the "Dole," thats the thing they do in England when you cant get work they give you a certain weekly allowance, and its called the "Dole." Course everybody over there says it hasent worked out, and that it was a mistake to start it. But I guess the ones that have been receiving it and buying their bread, dont think that it is such a terrible blunder, so thats the way it is, it sorter depends on which side of the fence you are on.

If you live under a Government and it dont provide some means of you getting work when you roally want it and will do it, why then there is something wrong. You cant just let the people starve, so if you dont give em work, and you dont give em food. or money to buy it, why what are they to do? What is the matter with our Country anyhow? With all our brains in high positions, and all our boasted organizations, thousands of our folks are starving, or on the verge of it. Millions of bushels of wheat are in Granaries at the lowest price in twenty years. Why cant there be some means of at least giving everybody all the bread they wanted anyhow?

Here they are starving in Arkansaw and in our adjoining State of Oklahoma they are feeding their wheat to the stock to try and get rid of it. Oil, there was never such an over

Gasoline was never much higher. But hands of a few men, and they see that the price is kept up. Its not regulated by supply and demand its regulated by

But the main thing is we just aint oing something right, we are on the wrong track somewhere, we shouldent be giving people money, and them not do anything for it, no matter what you had to hand out for necessities, the receiver should give some kind of work in return. Cause he has to eat just the same when he is laying off as when he is working. So every City or every State should give work of some kind, at a livable wage so that no one would be in actual want. Of it would cost the Taxpayers more money, but if you are making it, and all your fellow men are not slice of it for the less fortunate Course the big mans argument, and all the heavy Taxpayers alabi is that when you take too big a slice from a man as taxes it takes that much more out of his investments and might cut down on money being put into enterprises But it dident work that way after the war, and during it why Income taxes run as high as seventy percent on every dollar earned, and yet there was more money being made and put into things than there is now.

If your Income Taxes go to help out the less fortunate, there could be no legitimate kick against it in the world. This is becoming the richest and the poorest Country in the world. Why? Why, on account of an unequal distribution of the money.

How can you equalize it, by putting a higher surtax on large incomes, and that money goes to provide some public work, at a livable wage. I dont mean a wage that is maintained in other lines. I mean a wage is provided for the unemployed. That is if you could in no way find a job, you could go to some State or National, or City or Country Public work, that would give you say four hours a day work, instead of the usual eight. You wouldent be accepting Charity. But you would be doing honest work for it, until you could get employment in some line that was not public work, and at a regular wage. It wouldent cheapen labor. It would only cheapen Public works, the thing the people, and the thing they would like to have cheap ened. But it would be an Insurance against not having anything to do. Now that we got that settled all we have to do is to get by Congress, and see if the Republicans will vote a higher Income tax on the rich babies. It might not be a great plan, but it will dam sure beat the one we got now. (6 1931, McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

This event was given dated. He warned against such conin honor of T. F. Marston, of Bay dition occurring here in Grayling and City, secretary of the Eastern Michigan Tourist association. A group of 74 sat down to the long toes, celery, rolls, apple pie and large audiones recent pleased the coffee. The speakers table was crosswise at one end of the room. Con spicuous at one of the other tables was Spike's Lumberjacks basket ball team with their flaming red and black sweatshirts, across the breasts of Salling Hanson Co. camps were which were the words "Grayling Lumberjacks;" and on the backs they read "Capital City of Winter Sports." An orchestra composed of Mrs. George Olson, piano; Kathryn Clark, violin; Margaret Warren, traps; and Kathryn Brown, sax-aphone, played during the dinner hour President Emil Kraus occupied one end of the speaker's table, and Secretary Marius N. Insley, the opposite end; Toastmaster Rev. J. W. Greenwood sat near the center, facing the banqueters.

Mr. Greenwood, as master of cere monies, got off a lot of witticisms and told some interesting stories of his experiences since coming to Grayling, and offered some pat remarks when introducing the few speakers, who were Mr. Marston, M. Hanson, O. P. Schumann and T. W. Hanson, Maraton praised Grayling's opsaid that this feature was so well matter of carelessness rather than a solvertised and so generally well lack of interest. It certainly would known about the state that the people of Grayling cannot afford not to keep up this feature. People are de-manding just the kind of winter sports that we have been offering and hundreds are awaiting the real season to begin. Lack of snow and cold weather has held back operations to some extent. Toboggan slides such as ours cannot be constructed without now and cold weather. The storms of this week have provided this and men are now at work getting slide No. 2 ready for use. Mr. Marston stated that such friendliness and hospitality that is afforded by the people of Grayling is one reason why people like to come here and to keep coming. And we have here the coming. And we have here the to come through. Saturday, young one field things people want both in winter and George Cousineau went out to the taske in summer. Mr. Marston gave a lake to try his luck and after a few evening. rief resume of the plans of the Tourist Association for the coming year and gave out some good suggestions

T. W: Hanson was the last speaker on the program and told how it was that hundreds are knocking on the doors of Grayling awaiting admission to its recreational resources. Letters were read from parties wishing to make reservations and for information relative to winter sports. He told the story of Wrigley's Catalina Island, and how it had been over-advertised inferred that we must gradually work up our winter sports in a degree that will enable us to be able to take proper care of those who come heretables and enjoyed a dinner consist. give them what they want and to their satisfaction. President Emil Kraus announce that there will be another dinner at the club rooms some time next month, and he is already making plans for it. Look for something new and novel for the next banquet program.

Returning from the Pines a banquet was awaiting them at the Board of Trade club rooms, complimentary of some of our local citizens.

The time was short so that speeche were cut short. T. W. Hanson soted as master of ceremonies and called pon Representative Conrad Netting f Detroit, chairman of the Hous Fish committee who expressed his appreciation of the Hartwick park. He said that he had visited the place many times in the summer time and was particularly pleased with its appearance in winter, Mr. Hoffmaster state chairman of the parks commis the State committee had for the completion of that place. Every move that is being made, he said, is with the ultimate intention of making the physical beauty harmonize with the natural beauty of the park. He spoke "What cracker is that same that pride on this place which will, no doubt, become Michigan's most beautiful state park.

A POLOGY and reparation from the Republican national committee are demanded by Alfred E. Smith, Democratic Presidential candidate in 1928, for permitting its executive director, Robert H. Lucas, to circulate 800,000 cop-ies of the "Al Smith-Raskob Idea of Happiness" circular in Nebrasks and other states during the campaign last fall. On the circular was a picture of a barroom.

Mr. Smith made his demand in a letter which Senator Wagner of New York introduced before the Nye senatorial campaign committee. He declared a quotation attributed to him was false and said: "I am entitled to have 800,000 copies of a statement, showing that I was falsely quoted, distributed just as widely as the original cartoon was and to the same organizations."

Senator Nye told the committee that charges of perjury would be filed at Lincoln, Neb., against George W. Norris, the grocer of Broken Bow, sought to run against Senator George W. Norris in the last primary in Ne

SEVERAL hundred delegates, maino ly from Mississippi valley states, attended a waterway and flood control conference in Chicago promoted by Mayor William Hale Thompson. The men from Louisiana were especially active in the meeting and presented a platform calling for more money for flood control, more rapid expenditure of the funds now available, and radical changes in the Jadwin plan for a reservoir system, with a board of distinguished civil engineers replacing the War department engineers in charge of construction, if necessary, Mayor Thompson was lauded as "the most effective friend the Mississippi valley ever has had." and several delegates bitterly denounced Col. Robert Isham Randolph, president of the Chi-Isham Randolph, president of the Chi-cago Association of Commerce, who in a New Orleans speech had called the conference a ballyhoo and political rally for Thompson.

Senator David A Reed of Pennsylvania, a member of the class of 1900, is also suggested He, too, is on the board of trustees. Doctor Hibben was elected president of the university January 11, 1912, and inaugurated the following May 12. He succeeded Woodrow Wilson, who resigned in 1910 upon his election as governor of New Jersey. Only three of Princeton's fourteen presidents served terms longer that the 20 years of Doctor Hibben, They were John Witherspoon, the sixth president, who served from 1768 to 1799; James Carnohan, the ninth, from 1823 to 1854; and James McCosh. the eleventh, from 1868 to 1888.

IF THE Democratic party wants another wet candidate for the Presidency in 1932, Albert C. Ritchie is ready for the job. 8, H. Strawn national trade depression, This subject will be taken up promptly at the first plenary session which will be presided over by Georges Theunis, former premier of Belgium and president of the international chamber.

The program for the conference was announced by Silas H. Strawn of Chicago, chairman of the American committee of the international chamber In discussing the existing conditions he said:

"The conviction is held in many quarters abroad that the first step toward business recovery in Europe is the resumption of normal buying in the United States. Until our peo-ple, by the renewal of purchases abroad of both raw materials and fin ished products, can reduce surplus stocks and bring about a stable price level in the more important countries Enropean business leaders see no prol ability of substantial improvement in the world economic situation.

"Perhaps the most ominous cloud that overhangs the whole economic world is the dumping on the world markets of large quantities of grain raw materials, and semi-finished prod-ucts by Soviet Russia, at prices less than the normal costs of production.

"The Washington conference will endeavor to investigate carefully the distinction between cause and effect in the present situation, with a view to establishing to what extent remedies can be sought and the first steps hastened by co-ordinating sectional endeavor."

O NE of America's truly great Jews, Nathan Straus of New York, has passed on to his reward. Having acquired a large fortune in merchandis ing, he devoted himself to aiding his fellow men and gave away many mil lions. Outstanding among his benefac-tions was his work for the conservation of infant life largely through the establishment of stations where pure milk could be obtained for babies by the poor. Chicago also lost a philan thropic Jew in the death of Edwin F. Meyer, who gave large sums to de-pendents of slain policeman and was an organizer of the Associated Jewish charities.

HOW A COLLEGE INSTRUCTOR'S TIME IS SPENT

The "average" college instructor, as he is found at the University of Michigan, is thirty to thirty-two years of age, is male, married, earns a salary of approximately $2,100, has his bachelors and masters degrees, and the chances are about even that he is taking advanced work. He has been at Michigan for about three years, had four or five years previous experience, devotes somewhat more than half his working time of twentysix hours a week to active teaching, about twenty-five per cent to other duties connected with the courses and requiring knowledge of their subject matter, and approximately sixteen per cent to conferences with students and others.

Family Food Guide

Every meal—Milk for children, bread for all.

Every day—Cereal in porridge or puddings; Potatoes; Tematoes (or oranges for children; A green or yellow vegetable; A fruit or additional vegetable.

Two to four times a week—Tomatoes for all. Dried bean and peas or peanuts. Eggs (especially for children). Lean meat, fish or poultry, or cheese.

With only $7.12 a housewife can provide four adults with three meals a day for one week if she follows the food guide developed by the Bureau of Home Economics, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

This is the average cost for a week's market basket, outlined in this article. The sum is derived from figures gathered in twelve cities throughout the country. New York city tops the list with a cost of $7.83, followed by Charlotte, N. C., with $7.57. Detroit prices are the lowest with a figure of $5.39 and Pittsburgh comes next with $6.75.

The variety of the foods listed in the market basket is not great but they are what is known as protective foods. Dr. Louise Stanley, Chief of the hureau, explains this as meaning that there is a good supply of vitamins, protein, calcium, phosphorous and iron, as well as enough calories, to provide for growth and health.

At the request of the Woman's Division of the President's Emergency Committee for Employment, of which Dr. Lillian Gilbreth is head, the bureau developed this food guide to meet the needs of these families who must live on a very small sum of money as the result of the present situation. It was designed as a minimum food guide and wherever the family pocketbook permits, the allowance should be increased. The bureau suggests that the cheapest and best way to augment the weekly allowance is to increase the milk and tomatoes one pound per person per week. The quantities of milk, vegetables, and lean meat listed are absolutely neces.

Market Suggestions

The menu suggested for one day includes liver and bacon. The bureau has made extensive experiments with beef, hog, calf and lamb liver with the following results. Hog liver compares very favorably with beef and calf liver and is usually half as expensive. Its flavor is much improved by scalding for about half a minute before frying in bacon fat. Bamb liver is also cheap but it is usually sold whole and not by the single pound.

The vegetable and fruit allowance of 20 pounds should include some leafy green vegetables and some yellow vegetables, and some oranges, bananas, and dried fruit. The choice necessarily must depend on the price.

A good divison might be 15 pounds of vegetables and five pounds of fruit.

Mild flavored vegetables should be cooked quickly, until tender, in as little water as possible, and all juices used either with the vegetable, or in soup. In this way the valuable minerals, so necessary for health, are not wasted, the bureau advises.

Old Romance, Dormant

45 Years, Rekindled Memphis, Tenn.—A romance which thrived 45 years ago and then was dormant until recently has resulted in the marriage of a Memphis artist and a widow who was his childhood sweet-heart in the early eighties.

The couple was married recently in Kalamazoo, Mich., and is now honeymooning in the South.

The romance was reopened when Frank L. Van Ness, sixty-four-year-old artist, former newspaper man and painter, visited in Michigan. The visitor was mentioned in the columns of the Paw Paw Courier-Northerner, Beit was her former sweetheart, Mrs. Rose Sliter, sixty-two, widowed and the mother of three children, wrote Van Ness from her home in Kalamazoo

Van Ness replied in person and shortly afterward the couple an-nounced their engagement.

Milburn, N. J.-Joseph Hamley amiable 220-pound slot machine rack eteer, whose tendency toward rulity was a fatal violation of the etiquette of crime, was slain near here recently, the police believe, because he knew who shot Jack (Legs) Dia mond at the Monticello hotel in New York on October 12.

According to information police have obtained as the result of the slaying of Hamley, whose booming laugh and ready handshake carried him from the obscurity of a repairer of slot machines to a part ownership of 300 of them. Diamond was shot as suffered fearfully from stomach the result of trying to "muscle in" bowel trouble," said Mrs. Marie op the Jersey slot machine territory of a former henchman, Irving Wexler,

Police have learned definitely, it is said, that not only did the loquacious Hamley know who shot Diamond, but he also knew who took Abe Figura former roommate of Diamond, fo ride on October 11, the day before the chief was shot in the New York hotel. They say that both shootings were the result of the Jersey slot machine war and that Hamley was killed by the same men, who were fearful that he would indulge his penchant for talk ing to police or to anyone else who would listen to him.

Hamley's story, police say, is the story of an ambitions fat man who eause it keeps me feeling fit." His art consisted of turning nickel machines, which were legal since they requite their players with a roll of mints, into "two-bit" machines, which are illegal since their players obtain nothing if they lose.

Hamley Meets Figura.

It was on one of his trips a year ago through his territory that he met Figura, Diamond's right-hand man, who was surveying the country with Diamond. He felt that the slot machine racket wasn't being properly developed, according to police, and that Hamley with his knowledge of the trade might be valuable.

He arranged a meeting between Dia mond and Hamley, it is definitely known, in fact, Hamley himself was the authority for it. There the ambitious fat man convinced Diamond that he knew the trade knew where slot machines should be placed. He invested a small bit of money, police say, and was declared one of Dia mond's partners, a distinction of which he was inordinately proud.
For a time Hamley was happy in the consciousness that he had arrived, had made good. The first thing to disturb his serenity was a conversation with a representative of Wexler's. "What do you mean by trying to

WORLD IS HAPPY EXPERT CLAIMS

Only 60 Workers Out of 500 Think Bad Outweighs the Good.

New York.-It's a happy world, on the whole. Not many people want to be dramatic figures of tragedy in the eyes of their fellows. On the contrary most of us humans like to rate our selves as being happier than average

This light on human nature has been cast by a new psychological study of happiness made by Dr. Randolph Satter of Yeaching university in China Doctor Salier worked under direction of Dr. Goodwin Watson of Teachers college, who has been analyzing hap piness and happy people for several years.

In a questionnaire on their own hap piness or lack of it. just 60 workers out of 500 said that the world is more bad than good, or that they were less happy then the average mortal. Not one of the 500 was a complete pessimist or a perfect optimist.

Poor Health and Unhappiness. Poor health is definitely linked with unhappiness. according to this survey Hiness and physical handicaps cause unhappiness, or whether the situation is sometimes reversed, with unhappi ness and worry bringing on physica troubles

Do you worry about the future! That is a trait that goes with uphappiness, it was found. Few happy peo ple worry about what is going to happen next. Still, the happy person is not happy-go-lucky. Nearly all of the happiest group declared that life should be lived with a serious pur-DOSC.

gation further Doctor Watson said that happy people tend to be consistently happy.

"The happy worry less about the future, about money, sex, jobs, appearance, education or the lack of it," he explained. "They have less fear of failure, less restlessness, fewer fears, Those who are happy in one field, say. with their friends, tend also to be hap-py in health, in relation to parents, religion, love, vocation and schooling

"If a man appeared to believe that he was not well treated on the job it was interesting to note that he believed that life had been unkind to him in many other ways. It seemed not the situation that needed to be studied." Finances No Gauge.

Among other findings from the happiness survey are:

The state of a man's finances to no rellable gauge of his happiness. Some of the happlest and some of the most miserable men were found among the low-salaried group.

The "only child" is no more happy or unhappy than the child in a large Smokers as a group are no more or less happy than nonsmokers.

Religion plays a role in maintaining happiness, judging by the reports of the happler group, who were inclined to rate religion as an important factor in their happiness.

An even temperament is likely to be happy one. The person whose emotions habitually run the scale is generally an unhappy person, the survey indicates.

And married men are happier than bachelors.

'New Fangled" Ideas Didn't Bother Farmer

Logan, Ohio.-A farmer from nearby town, who made a recent visit to Logan, his first in many years, just couldn't be bothered with these "new-fangled ideas," such as traffic lights and regulations. Although traffic heavy, he rode into town, seated in his buggy, drove his horse through two red light signals, made a "U" turn on the main street and then hitched to a a few feet from a fireplug.

It Was Just an Osprey. Not a Vicious Eagle

Grandville, Mich,-Alfred Hoch twenty-two, of Grandville, while hunt ing ducks recently had a hand-tohand battle with what he thought was an eagle. After killing the bird he marched triumphantly home to tell of his capture. There more experienced bird hunters said it was a harmles: species known as the osprey. Bird men said the osprey is very rare in Michigan.

Patent Earns Man $600,000 Royalties

Albany, N. Y .- Antonio Valen-West Albany grocer te, a West Albany grocer, worked for seven years on a fire extinguishing system and recently had it patented. Today he stands to earn some $600,000 in royalties, according to a patent report he has received.

Valente's system, which he worked out in his more time is to install a network of pipes in every room of a home or in every division of a building. A series of valves, operated from the outside, would be used to turn on water in any one part of the building or throughout it.

"Spate" Used to Be Vulgar and "Gin" Was as Impolite as "Gent" Now Is.

New York .- A gentleman may, with complete propriety, atter the 'spats" in polite society nowadays, but there was a time when he would have shown himself a boor had he dared say it. Likewise, it is eminently respectable to comment on a horse's canter, but once it wasn't.

For the proper form of "spats" used to be "spatter-dashes" back in the water, and a few centuries ago there was no such thing as a "canter." A horse indulged in the "canterbury gallop," so named from the horses of pilgrims bound for Canterbury.

Many clipped words once considered as vulgar as "gent," "rep," and "exam" have been taken into the language and awarded positions of unquestioned re spectability, says the Golden Book Magazine. And the people who use them today seldom realize that they were looked on as no better than they should have been.

There is for instance, the word mob." Taken from the Latin, mobile vulgus, meaning the fickle crowd of on people, it was long considered unworthy of polite society. Now t may so anywhere. Or "wig." It is a corruntion of the older "periwig" which, in turn, was a corruption of the French "perruque." "Gin," too, is clipped, having been "geneva," a word that was taken from the French name of the juniper berry, with which the drink is flavored. "Chap" started out as "chapman," an old name for a merchant or dealer, and "cab" is a pocket edition of "cabri olet," a one horse carriage. "Bus" was originally "empileus," and still to to England, and "hack" comes from "hackney coach," a vehicle offered for

But they're all respectable how. Maybe, in a few more years every gentleman will be a gent.
